SUMNER'S WEAK DEFENSE

His Own Witnesses Give Evidence Very Uncomplimentary.

Engineer Bowles Declares That in Capt. Summer's Place He Would Consider Himself Responsible.

New York, Sept. 6 -The court-martial of lapt. Geo . W. Sumner, of the United States cruiser Colombia, for alleged seglect of duty and incompetence in dry-docking the cruiser at Southampton, England, was resumed at the Brooklyn navy yard at 10 o'clock to-day.

Capt. Summer entered the room some time before the hour set for the opening of the day's proceedings. The prosecution fin ished its testimony vesterday, and the deense was opened by Copt. Summer, who testified in his own behalf. His testimony added nothing to the evidence which has already been placed on record

Lieut, Commander Manix, who defended Capt. Summer, continued the defense this morning by calling Naval Constructor Charles T. Bowles, of the Navy Yard, to the stand. Constructor Bowles restified that he had dry-docked the Columbia after her return from Southampton and had examined the injuries she had received "Were these injuries serious?" usked

Advocate Draper. "The injuries were not serious," replied Constructor Bowles. "They were local in nature and not structural. I noticed on examination that the edges of the keet plates were slightly dented and that the rivets in some points were losscood, thus opening some of the scame. The stanchious
